

'Funday IsCool' Frequently Asked Questions

1. What subjects we are offering (registration only have arabic)

Answer: We will teach two main subjects in sha Allah. Arabic and Bengali.

2. Every class is 30 minutes with very young kids, how will you make sure all the kids of different ages will understand?

Answer: In a 30-minute class with very young kids of varying age levels, it is essential to implement strategies that foster understanding for all. Using age-appropriate language and explanations helps ensure that concepts are accessible and comprehensible to each child. Integrating visual aids and interactive activities engages their senses and keeps them actively involved in the learning process. Encouraging peer-to-peer learning and cooperation promotes a collaborative environment where older children can assist younger ones, reinforcing their own understanding while helping their peers. Adapting teaching styles to accommodate individual needs ensures that every child receives the necessary support and challenges to grasp the material effectively.

Additionally, providing clear and concise instructions helps maintain focus and comprehension throughout the short duration of the class. By implying these methods, educators can create an inclusive and dynamic learning environment that caters to the diverse needs and developmental stages of each child.

3. Do you think a 30-minute class is enough for young kids?

Answer: Absolutely, a 30-minute class can be beneficial for young kids as it keeps their attention focused and engaged on specific activities, ensuring efficient learning and retention. It also allows the kids and teachers interactions throughout the day more frequent and productive, enhancing their overall learning experience.

4. How many levels of Arabic reading classes?

Answer: Two levels. One for beginners, one for the advanced who will do Hifz.

5. What is our Bangla syllabus or focus?

For Bengali our focus is reading, writing and speaking. We will start from the basics and group the students according to their levels.

6. How will you define who goes which level of classes, is it age based or level of learning that is already understood?

Answer: Prior to the Arabic classes, expert teachers will do oral assessments and divide students into two groups based on their proficiency: beginners for those with little or no prior knowledge, and advanced for those with higher reciting skills with proper tajweed.

7. Quran memorization, do you provide just memorization or follow tajweed rules?

Answer:

8. Are we going to teach Tajweed in basic Quran learning?

Answer:

Our Quran session will be divided into two levels:

- a. Learning to recite Quran: It includes introducing with Arabic letters and tajweed
- b. Hifz: Students will be taught according to their levels

9. For practice at home, do you have any reliable website to follow recitation?

Answer:

10. Do you provide resources, I mean books ?

Answer: Not at the beginning. The approach to providing resources depends on the class and the students' needs, without pressuring them, especially when dealing with kids.

11. Do you provide homework?

Answer: The decision to assign homework is up to the teachers. Considering the varying needs and abilities of individual students. Homework can be beneficial for reinforcing learning, practicing language skills, and tracking progress, but its implementation should be mindful of each student's unique learning pace and capabilities.

12. How will you assess kids' performance?

Answer: Through various methods such as quizzes, tests, assignments, class participation, and verbal assessments.

13. Do you provide exams after completing the syllabus?

Answer: In a multi-grade classroom, it's common to have a continuous assessment approach rather than a year-end exam for all. The evaluation process can include quizzes, projects, presentations, and periodic assessments tailored to individual grade levels and learning progress. This approach ensures ongoing learning and allows teachers to monitor each student's development effectively.

14. Would you be able to mention how many semesters will cover until summer?

Answer: The program is not structured into specific semesters, and learning will be tailored to each child's pace. However, certain activities or courses may be considered summative assessments. The number of activities or courses until summer may vary depending on individual progress, but the focus is on continuous learning and personalized development rather than fixed semester timelines.

15. Could we know about the whole year course plan and evaluation method?

Answer: As of now, the whole year course plan and evaluation method are still under development. Given the diverse grade levels and age groups of our students, we are carefully considering their individual needs and progress to design a flexible and effective curriculum. The course plan will be tailored to accommodate various learning paces and interests, while the evaluation method will encompass a continuous and personalized approach to track each student's growth throughout the year.

16. Are you going to support kids to participate in a Quran competition held in Edmonton?

Answer: Yes, inshaAllah we will.

17. As it's a one weekly Class, how will parents contact to express or discuss any concerns/problems?

Answer: Parents can stay informed and contact the teacher through regular communication channels like WhatsApp/ Email or parent-teacher meetings to discuss any concerns or issues related to the weekly class.

18. Which method of communication will be used for parents and teachers?

Answer: WhatsApp and Email.

19. How will kids submit homework if there is any?

Answer: Kids can submit their homework through various methods, depending on the teacher's preference and the resources available. Common methods include submitting physical copies of the homework in class, uploading assignments to an online platform, or sending them via email. The teacher will provide clear instructions on how to submit homework effectively.

20. Do we accept four-year old

Answer: No, we don't. We accept kids 5 to 15 years old.

21. Is family halaqa offered for all ages?

Answer: Yes. Family halaqa is designed for the whole family. We will cover different essential topics of Islam that will benefit everyone.

22. Can I join family halaqa by myself (would that be free)?

Answer: Anyone can join Family halaqa. It will be an open session for any Muslims, even non Muslims are invited too. It will be free of cost. You don't have to register or pay for this session.

23. Can my kids join only sports? What would be the fees?

Answer: Funday IsCool comes as a full package. Any students who want to join, they will have to attend the full event. Exception is for adults who want to join sports, they can join as a walk in and there will be a little charge for adults only.

24. Will there be any sister-only Halaqa?

Answer:

25. are there any pick-up and drop-off services for kids?

Answer: At this moment, we can not guarantee any transportation services. However upon completion of registration, we may try to arrange some carpooling or transportation. It will solely depend on the number of kids in that specific area.

26. Do you provide tax receipts?

Answer:

27. i would like to put my kids only Bangla/Quran class - any reduced monthly fee for this?

Answer: We will have a patent information session on September 3, 2023. We will be able to give detailed information during the session in sha Allah.